Professor Dominic Wilkinson, Chair, European Neonatal Ethics Conference

Dominic Wilkinson is Director of Medical Ethics and Professor of Medical Ethics at the Oxford Uehiro Centre for Practical Ethics, University of Oxford. He is a consultant in newborn intensive care at the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford. He also holds a health practitioner research fellowship with the Wellcome Trust and is a senior research fellow at Jesus College Oxford. Dominic has published more than 120 academic articles relating to ethical issues in intensive care for adults, children and newborn infants. He is co-author (with Julian Savulescu) of ‘Ethics, Conflict and Medical treatment for children, from disagreement to dissensus’ (Elsevier, 2018). He is also the author of 'Death or Disability? The 'Carmentis Machine' and decision-making for critically ill children' (Oxford University Press 2013) ("the best book of the decade in bioethics... this is a book that must be read by everybody who is seriously interested in the bioethical issues that arise in neonatal intensive care or, more generally, in decision making for children with chronic, debilitating or life-threatening conditions." (John Lantos, Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews). He was Editor and Associate Editor of the Journal of Medical Ethics from 2011-2018. Twitter: @Neonatalethics

Dr Alok Sharma Co-Organiser and Treasurer European Neonatal Ethics Conference

Dr Alok Sharma is a Consultant Neonatologist at Princess Anne Hospital Southampton. He is Lead for the Wessex-Oxford Neonatal Education Programme. Alok started his postgraduate training in paediatrics in India completing an MD on 'Meconium Aspiration'. He has trained in neonatal and paediatric intensive care at Aberdeen, London, Exeter, Southampton and Leicester. He has founded the 'Neonatal Ethics and Difficult Situations Course' which is run nationally in multiple centres in the UK along with Dr D Wilkinson, Dr Sijo Francis, and Dr S Babarao. He has also developed the OPEN concept in simulated learning and worked on its implementation in ethics education. He has run numerous workshops on the ethical aspects of implementation of therapeutic hypothermia in India in partnership with the National Neonatology Forum India. Work on multidisciplinary neonatal simulation done by his team, and its impact on neonatal outcomes was nominated for the National BMJ Award securing the Runner’s Up position in 2014 and was awarded the Best Research Award at ASPIIH 2014.

Moral Distress on the NICU
What do staff do if they feel constrained to look after babies in opposition to their ethical beliefs or disagree with parents regarding best interests of the child? What do we do when we think babies are suffering and we can’t keep them comfortable? How do staff deal with moral and ethical dilemmas while continuing to care? Trisha and Lisa will be running a workshop on these issues.

International Perspectives
Rosa *Netherlands will be talking about antenatal counselling at extremes of prematurity from a Dutch perspective while Claire *France will be talking about antenatal decision making from a French perspective. This will be followed by a panel discussion with Dominic, Rosa, and Claire as chairs.

Limiting Nutrition in Neonates
Alok, Karen, Sharon and Sijo will explore your feelings regarding limiting nutrition as part of neonatal palliative care. Where should we be using it as a treatment choice, and in which babies. What if it’s not working. How is it practiced in different countries? Do we provide analgesia? What if it’s not working
