

ST GEORGE'S NHS TRUST

Neonatal Ethics and Difficult Situations

GAPS Simulation Centre

February 13th 2015

2015

Programme

- 0830-0845 Introductions
- 0845-0915 The Simulated Environment
- 0915-1015 The Best Interests Principle – Prof Wilkinson
- 1015-1045 Coffee and Discussion

Simulated Workshop Session 1

Venue	Group 1	Group 2	Group 3
1045-1130 (Scenario)	A Discussion with Parents	We don't want our baby resuscitated	We want everything done
1130-1200 (Discussion)	Withdrawal of Care	Outcomes and their influence on parental decision making: Who should make these decisions	Managing parental expectations

1200-1245 When we disagree with parents-‘Does the legal system help or make things worse?’ – Helen Edwards

1245-1330 Lunch

Simulated Workshop Session 2

Venue	Group 3	Group 1	Group 2
1330 - 1415 (Scenario)	A Discussion with Parents	We don't want our baby resuscitated	We want everything done
1415-1445 Discussion	Withdrawal of Care	Outcomes and their influence on parental decision making: Who should make these decisions	Managing parental expectations

1445-1530 Debate: It is ethical to limit nutrition for palliative care in neonates – Lead Drs De Rooy, Mike Hall, Lisa Leppard, Paula Steele

1530-1545 Coffee

Simulated Workshop Session 3

Venue	Group 2	Group 3	Group 1
1545 – 1615 (Scenario)	A Discussion with Parents	We don't want our baby resuscitated	We want everything done
1615-1645 Discussion	Withdrawal of Care	Outcomes and their influence on parental decision making: Who should make these decisions	Managing parental expectations

1645-1730 Cases for discussion from the participants

1730 Close

Faculty

Dominic Wilkinson, Oxford
 Laura De Rooy, London
 Robert Ironton, Southampton
 Alok Sharma, Southampton
 Sijo Francis, London
 Srinivasarao Babarao, Wirral
 Ranjit Gunda, Southampton
 Lisa Leppard, Southampton
 Sally Doyle, London
 Paula Steele, London
 Helen Edwards, London