

MPROVE

MultiProfessional Simulation in Neonatal Education

Neonatal Ethics and Difficult Situations

Clinical Skills Centre Wirral
November 30th 2015

2015

Programme

- 0830-0840 Introductions
- 0840-0900 The Simulated Environment
- 0900-0945 Extremes of Viability-‘Is Gestational Ageism Justified?’
Dominic Wilkinson Consultant Neonates Oxford
University Hospital
- 0945-1030 The Best Interest Principle
Sijo Francis Consultant Neonates and Lead St George’s
NHS Trust
- 1030-1045 Coffee and Discussion

Simulated Workshop Session 1

Venue	Group 1	Group 2	Group 3
1045-1115 (Scenario)	Differing Opinions	We don’t want our baby resuscitated	We want everything done
1115-1145 (Discussion)	Disagreement within the team	Outcomes and their influence on parental decision making: Who should make these decisions	Managing parental expectations

- 1145-1245 Debate: It is ethical to limit nutrition for palliative care in neonates
For Dr Dominic Wilkinson
Against Dr Alok Sharma

- 1245-1330 Lunch

Simulated Workshop Session 2

Venue	Group 3	Group 1	Group 2
1330-1400 (Scenario)	Differing Opinions	Transferring a sick baby	A Discussion with Parents
1400-1430 Discussion	When teams don't agree?	Approach to a difficult ethical problem	Withdrawal of Care

1430-1500 A Simple Complication or a Coroner's Case-
Dr S Babarao (Consultant Neonates Wirral)

Panel Discussion

(Dr Donal Manning, Mr Andre Rebello, Dr Sri Babarao)

1500-1530 Coronial Processes, Inquest, and the Neonate
Mr Andre Rebello HM Coroner Cheshire and Merseyside

Simulated Workshop Session 3

Venue	Group 2	Group 3	Group 1
1530 – 1600 (Scenario)	We want everything done.	We don't want our baby resuscitated	A Discussion with Parents
1600-1630 Discussion	Managing parental expectations.	Outcomes and their influence on parental decision making: Who should make these decisions	Withdrawal of Care

1630-1645 Tea

1630-1730 Cases for discussion from the participants
(Dr Donal Manning to introduce the cases and Chair)

1730 Close & Feedback