

Neonatal Ethics and Difficult Situations

Simulation Suite South Academic Block
University Hospital Southampton
November 7th 2017

2017

Programme

0800-0830

Registration

0830-0845

Introductions

(Truths, Lies & You)

0845-0900

Thou Shalt Not Judge Thy Neighbour

(Introduction to your roles, the sim suite, and ground rules)

Session 1

Making Decisions to Limit Treatment

0900-0945

The Best Interest Principle

Dominic Wilkinson Consultant Neonates Oxford University Hospital

0945-1015

Parents & Decision Making

Dr Alok Sharma Consultant Neonates University Hospital Southampton

Simulated Workshop Session 1 (1015-1115)

Venue	Group 1	Group 2
Scenario	Sim 1 We Want Everything Done	Sim 2 We Want Everything Done
Discussion	'Managing Parental Expectations'	'Managing Parental Expectations'

1115-1145

Tea and Coffee

Session 2

Communication Around End of Life Care

Simulated Workshop Session 2 (1200-1300)

Venue	Group 1	Group 2
Scenario	Sim 1 Expert Opinion	Sim 2 Expert Opinion
Discussion	Debrief	Debrief

1300-1330

Lunch

1330-1400

Speaking to parents when Health Professionals Disagree Amongst Themselves?

Dr S Babarao Consultant Neonatologist Wirral Hospital

1400-1430

Speaking to Families with Sick Babies
What I have Learnt over time?

Dr Sijo Francis Consultant Neonatologist
St Georges NHS Trust London

Session 3

The Law and Treatment Decisions

1430-1515

The law and treatment decisions for newborn infants-Landmark Decisions Influencing Practice

*Professor Dominic Wilkinson Consultant
Neonates Oxford University Hospital*

1515-1615

Role Play-Keeping Things out of Court-
Prevention is Better Than Cure-
The Role of Medical Mediation in Practice

Sarah Barclay Medical Mediation United Kingdom

1600-1615

Tea and Coffee with Pastries

Session 4

Difficult Ethical Situations

1615-1715

Neonatal Death and Surrogacy

Lisa Leppard Senior Sister Princess Anne Hospital

1730

Close

Registration: www.surveymonkey.com/r/NEOETHICCOURSE

Website: <http://www.wonepedu.com/Products.html>