

Recent Advances in Management of Babies on the Postnatal Ward 'Keeping Mum and Baby Together'

WESSEX-OXFORD NETWORK STUDY DAY

LEAD DR KELLY BROWN LOCUM CONSULTANT NEONATOLOGIST

This study day aimed towards the sharing good practice with keeping mom and baby together and providing quality maternal of their training in a better way and deal with difficulties at the work place

Date-21st March 2018

Venue- The Parentcraft Room Level F Princess Anne Hospital Southampton

Register on <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/ZZGPM8S> or contact wonepedu@gmail.com

This training day is free and lunch is provided

Programme

0900-1030 Session 1 -Standardising & Integrating Postnatal Ward Guidance to Keep

Mom and Baby Together

0900-930 Quality Improvement on the Postnatal Ward-Guidelines, Communication and Standardising Information Provision

Dr Kelly Brown Consultant Neonatologist
Princess Anne Hospital Southampton

0930-1000 Treating Suspected Sepsis on the Postnatal Ward Time to administration

Dr Genevieve Southgate ST1 Neonates Princess Anne Hospital

1000-1030 Role of the Home Team: Initiatives in Postnatal Care

Janine Snook Senior Sister & Neonatal Home Team Lead

1030-1100 Coffee break

1100-1230 Session 2 –Management of Hypoglycaemia on the Postnatal ward

1100-1130 The Red Hat Initiative

Christine Pearce Senior Midwife Poole NHS Trust Poole

1130-1200 Traffic light system to Manage Neonatal Hypoglycaemia

Keeping Mom and Baby Together

Aakarshan Mehta MTI Neonatal Fellow

1200-1300 Lunch

1300-1430 Session 3- National Initiatives to Implement ATAIN:

Keeping Mom & Baby Together

1430-1500 Term Admissions: What we admit to the NICU from Labour Ward and the Postnatal Ward

Laura Croucher ST 5 Neonates Princess Anne Hospital

1500-1600 Session 4-Workshops*

News Charts on the PNW

Introducing Dextrose Gel