

Wessex
Oxford
Neonatal
Network
Education
Study Day

Theme Preterm Care

Network Perinatal Study Day

February 25th 2020
Clinical Skills Department, B Level, South Academic Block
Southampton General Hospital
SO16 6YD

This study day aims to cover management at extremes of viability, communication in that context and developing an MDT approach to decision making

Programme

Lectures to include

Evidence for resuscitation at Extremes of Viability
BAPM framework for practice
Impact on Network
Implications for DGH practice
NEC survival outcomes

Workshops

Faculty

Dr Sarah Bates	Consultant Paediatrician, Swindon
Emma Woodhouse	Sister QA Hospital, Portsmouth
Dr P McEwen	Consultant Neonatologist, Poole
Dr V Mundeshi	MTI Neonatal Trainee
Dr V F Puddy	Consultant Neonatologist, Southampton
Ms Tara Selman	Consultant Foetal Medicine, Southampton
Dr A Sharma	Consultant Neonatologist, Southampton
Dr Sushil Sharma	MTI Neonatal Trainee, Southampton
Dr Donna WS	Consultant Neonatologist Southampton
Dr D Varghese	MTI Neonatal Trainee
Dr L Yianni	Neonatal Grid Trainee
Dr Natalie Crawford	Foetal Medicine Trainee

Programme

08:30	Registration & Coffee
08.50	Introduction and Aims of the Day	AS
09.00	Limits of Viability BAPM Framework/Evidence	VP
09.40	Limits of Viability Obstetric Approach	TS
10.20	BAPM Guidance DGH Approach	PM
11.00	Tea & Coffee
11.30	Panel Discussion * SB, VP, RT, PM, TS
12.00	Morning Workshops (3 x 30 min workshops)
	Workshop 1 – DCC in Extreme Preterm White boards	DWS/SB
	Workshop 2 – Golden Hour-How do we improve management after birth White boards	VM/AS
	Workshop 3 – Nursing Care in the first 12 hours White boards	EW
13.30	Lunch
14.00	Delivery room management of the preterm birth A human-factors approach	AS
14.40	Quality Improvement and Delivery Room Cuddles in Delivery Suite	SB
15.20	Tea & Coffee
15.30-1730	Newer Developments in Preterm Care
1530	CLD and use of Hydrocortisone after birth in ELBW Do we need more evidence?	KG
1610	Case based discussions around extremely preterm birth	NC/LY
1650	ELBW Care over the next 5 years Where are we headed and what outcomes should we be looking at	DV
17.30	Summary and Close	