Dear colleagues please come and join us this summer in Oxford at the Kassam Stadium for the 2nd European Neonatal Ethics Conference. The theme of the conference this year is 'Sharing Ethical Practice Together'. This event is being held over 2 days at the Kassam Stadium in Oxford on the 1st and 2nd of June 2016.

THE EVENT

- Day 1 caters to simulated multidisciplinary workshops covering themes in neonatal ethics cascaded through facilitated conversations, high and low fidelity simulation (OPEN Concept) as well as videos. There are 36 places available for the workshops.
- Day 2 is the main conference which has a diaspora of European speakers covering neonatal ethical conundrum through presentations followed by panel discussion and audience interaction.

DELEGATES & ABSTRACTS

- We welcome delegates from all backgrounds medical, nursing, midwifery or allied specialties who have an interest in ethics.
- Abstracts are invited for the main conference.
- 4 abstracts will be chosen for a podium presentation. Presentations will allow facilitated discussion and interaction between presenting authors, panel members and the audience. There will be posters as well.
